SAGES NATAL CENTRAL

"Success in golf depends less on strength of body than upon strength of mind and character." -Arnold Palmer

Hi fellow seniors,

To say the least, it has been another busy and full Sages Golf year, with our interclub against Zululand played at Princess Grant, then our Sages Natal Central Annual Championship Trophy held at the prestigious Royal Durban Golf Club, followed by Sages Nationals, held in Bloemfontein, and then the Sages Regionals hosted by Midland at Maritzburg Golf Club. We also included the new Ernie Els signature course Zimbali Lakes into our busy schedule.

The Regionals in Pietermaritzburg was won by the hosts Sages Midland on a very respective total of 169, second place went to Natal Central (165) and third place went to the Zululand (164). The Maritzburg course was in outstanding condition and the weather held out better than expected.

Our November game was held at the prestigious Wild Coast Sun golf course, we encountered strong winds with relatively warm weather. Winning the Open Division was Ganas Naicker on 37 points, followed by the Shan Maistry also on 37 points and third was Adrian Munsamy on 34 points. The B division was won by Jayaram Naidoo on 38 points, followed by Nam Ganesh on 35 points and third was Bridg Rambujan on 34 points.

Our last game was played at Umdoni Park Golf Club on the 8th December, followed by a delicious meal which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The course was in excellent condition on the day, moderate wind which produced some excellent golf by most of the field. Winning the Open Division was Ramesh Rajpal on 38 points, followed closely by Mthoko Mtshali on 37 points and third was Patrick Fowler on 36 points. The B division was won by Pat Moodley on 40 points, followed by Sam Pillay on 35 points and third was Cyril Ramgath on 32 points.

Summer seems to finally have arrived, so ensure you have plenty of sunblock and ensure you keep yourself well hydrated before and whilst playing.

I wish you all a great festive season, and as ever I look forward to receiving your suggestions and feedback in the New Year

Kind regards

Patrick Fowler
