NOVEMBER/NOVEMBER 2026

Boodskap van die Voorsitter

SAGES LEDE

Hierdie maand gaan ek baie tyd bestee aan ons SAGES KLEREDRAG soos deur die Konstitusie bepaal en deur die Nasionale Bestuurskomitee bevestig in hulle skrywe aan die Uitvoerende lede (asook die Bestuurskomitee) in die Tak.

The NMC regards the SAGES Dress Code as an important part of our Society's identity, uniformity and collective pride. We therefore expect the full support, commitment and cooperation of every Branch Executive in restoring and maintaining the standards that SAGES represents.

The National Management Committee has resolved that these requirements will be formally implemented with effect from 1 January 2027. This implementation date provides all members with sufficient time to familiarise themselves with the requirements and to acquire any official SAGES garments they may still need.

Die Bestuurskomitee het op die maandvergadering hierdie skrywe van die Nasionale Bestuurskomitee bespreek en gee hiermee die opdragte aan elke lid van SAGES Noordwes deur.

Hierdie dokument, SAGES Dress Code Compliance and Enforcement, sal ook aan elke lid per epos gestuur word. Lees asb deur en vergewis jouself van die ernstigheid van hierdie skrywe. Bestudeer ook die voorbeelde van die Standaard kleredrag.

It is also very important to remember that the proposer of a new member is responsible for ensuring that the new member is thoroughly aware of the SAGES dress code.

Thank you to everyone who wears SAGES attire with pride at our monthly games.

BAIE DANKIE VIR JULLE SAMEWERKING. Groete. Daantjie.

SAGES Dress Code Compliance and Enforcement

1. Background and Current Concerns

Since the COVID-19 pandemic, SAGES has adopted a more lenient approach regarding the wearing of formal SAGES attire at official functions. The National Management Committee (NMC) has no intention of deviating from this practice. However, this concession does not suspend, change or abolish the official SAGES dress code, which remains fully applicable and must be adhered to at all SAGES functions, tournaments, and monthly club games.

The NMC is increasingly concerned about the growing disregard for the prescribed SAGES dress code during monthly games and tournaments. It has become common to see members participating in attire that does not comply with SAGES standards, including caps or hats of any colour or design, trousers in non-approved colours, non-SAGES shirts in shades of blue, locally designed blue shirts bearing a SAGES logo, and socks of any colour.

While some instances of non-compliance involve only one or two incorrect items, others involve attire that bears little or no resemblance to the official SAGES uniform. Regardless of the extent of the deviation, all members are expected to comply fully with the prescribed dress code.

The NMC has therefore resolved that the current situation can no longer be tolerated. Wearing official Sages attire has long been one of the Society's traditions and forms an important part of our identity, image, and sense of belonging. The NMC remains committed to preserving this tradition and restoring the standards expected of all members.

2. Immediate Implementation of Dress Code Requirements

With immediate effect, all Branch Executives are instructed to ensure strict compliance with the official Sages Dress Code and the enforcement measures set out below

2.1 New Members

Branches must ensure that the subscription fees payable by new members include provision for at least the following official SAGES items:

- One official SAGES shirt.
- One official SAGES cap or hat.
- One official SAGES name tag.

The objective is to ensure that every new member receives the essential items of official SAGES attire upon joining the Society and understand the importance of complying with the dress code from the outset

2.2 Monthly Club Games

Branch management is responsible for ensuring that all members participating in monthly club games comply fully with the official SAGES dress code.

The following enforcement measures will apply to members who fail to comply:

- Refusal to tee off: Members who are not correctly dressed may be refused permission to participate.
- Forfeiture of prizes: Members who compete while not complying with the dress code may forfeit any prizes won, subject to the applicable rules and procedures.
- Fines: Habitual offenders may be fined at the discretion of Branch Management.
- Suspension of membership: In cases of serious or repeated non-compliance, temporary or permanent suspension of membership may be pursued in accordance with the SAGES Constitution and applicable disciplinary procedures.

Branch Executives are expected to take ownership of this responsibility and apply the dress code consistently and without favouritism. Previous tolerance of non-compliance cannot be regarded as a precedent for future conduct

2.3 Regional and National Tournaments

The captain of each team participating in a Regional or National Tournament is responsible for ensuring that all team members are correctly dressed in official SAGES attire.

The following measures will apply in cases of non-compliance:

- Refusal to tee off: Members who are incorrectly dressed may be prevented from participating.
- Forfeiture of prizes: Members found to be in breach of the dress code may forfeit tournament prizes, subject to the applicable rules and procedures.
- Fines: Offending members may be fined at the discretion of the Tournament Organizing Committee.
- Exclusion from future tournaments: Members who repeatedly or seriously disregard the dress code may be excluded from future Regional and National Tournaments in accordance with the applicable rules and procedures.
- Consequences for branches: Branches that consistently fail to enforce the dress code may be subject to sanctions including the possible exclusion from future tournaments or the forfeiture of tournament allocations, subject to the authority and procedures provided for in the SAGES governing documents.

Team captains and Branch Executives must ensure that these requirements are communicated to all team members well in advance of any tournament.

Ignorance of the dress code will not be accepted as an excuse for non-compliance

3. Authority of the NMC and Amendments to Governing Documents

The NMC regards the current level of non-compliance as sufficiently serious to warrant immediate intervention.

The NMC reserves the right to incorporate the requirements and enforcement measures contained in this notice into the SAGES Operations Manual.

Should these measures fail to achieve the required level of compliance, the NMC will consider submitting formal motions to the Annual General Meeting seeking amendments to the SAGES Constitution to provide for the necessary requirements, sanctions, and enforcement mechanisms.

The objective is to ensure that dress code compliance is clearly defined, consistently enforced, and fully supported by the Society's governing documents.

For the avoidance of doubt, any fines, suspensions, exclusions from tournaments or other disciplinary sanctions must be implemented in accordance with the Constitution, the Operations Manual and any applicable disciplinary procedures. Where additional authority is required to impose or strengthen such sanctions, the necessary constitutional processes will be followed.

4. Responsibility of Branch Executives

All Branch Executives are hereby requested to communicate this notice to every member within their respective branches and ensure that the requirements are properly understood and implemented.

Branch management must take responsibility for enforcing the dress code at monthly club games, while team captains must ensure compliance at Regional and National Tournaments.

The NMC expects all branches to support this initiative and to apply the rules fairly, consistently and without favouritism. A dress code cannot be effective if it is enforced selectively or if members are allowed to disregard it without consequence.

5. Conclusion

The SAGES dress code forms an important part of our Society's identity, tradition, and collective pride. While we recognise that a degree of flexibility regarding formal attire has been accepted since the COVID-19 pandemic, this should not be interpreted as permission to disregard the official dress code during monthly club games or tournaments

The NMC is committed to restoring the required standards and expects the full cooperation of every Branch Executive, team captain, and member in achieving this objective.

We trust that all branches will give this matter the urgent attention it deserves and ensure that these requirements are communicated clearly to all members.

Thank you for your cooperation and continued commitment to upholding the traditions and standards of SAGES.

Skrywer en sanger van hierdie liedjie onbekend....
SNAP, CRACKLE EN POP!
Ja, manne en maninne...
As jy soggens self uit die bed kan klim, al klink jy soos ‘n pakkie Rice Krispies, dan weet jy, die Here het jou vir nog ‘n dag gespaar.
Ek rol uit die bed, en my rug sê kraak!, my kniee protesteer en my nek gee ‘n knak,
My skouer klik links en my heup klik regs, ek klink soos ‘n trekker wat sukkel om te start

Snap crackle pop, daar gaan ek alweer, maar ek kyk na bo en ek glimlag net weer
Dankie liewe Heer, ek is darem nog hier, met ‘n lyf vol gekraak, maar ‘n hart vol plesier, Snap Crackle Pop, daar gaan ons alweer,
Die lyf vol skete, maar ons kla nie te veel , met ‘n handvol pille en ‘n koppie koffie
Sing ons nog lekker, al loop ons bietjie skeef.

Die hare word grys en die middellyf groei, maar die Here se genade laat die hart nog bloei.
Ons is dalk oud, maar ons harte bly jonk, Met ‘n dankbare glimlag en ‘n liedjie op die tong!
Die bloeddruk is hoog en die suiker speel nie saam, Die jig in my groottoon ken my al by die naam
Ek drink soveel pille ek kort my eie apteek, en as ek my sleutels soek, lê hy voor my neus
Ek stap kombuis toe, maar waarvoor weet ek nie
Staan toe voor die yskas en staar soos ‘n genie, ek vra my vrou waar’s my bril my skat

Sy sê, “op jou kop ou grote, gaan le so‘n bietjie plat”,
Hoe ouer ek word, hoe duideliker sien ek, dis nie geld of besittings wat geluk aan jou skenk nie,
Dis vriende om die tafel en familie naby jou, en mense wat jou liefhet deur die mooi en die rou
Ek soek nie meer rykdom of wêreldse eer, net vrede in my hart en mense om my heen
Want tyd saam met geliefdes is kosbaarder as goud, dis die ware rykdom wat nooit sy waarde verloor
Elke nuwe more is ‘n gawe uit Sy hand, elke asemteug ‘n seën, elke vriend ‘n kosbare pand
Al kraak my ou lyf en vergeet ek nou en dan, bly ek dankbaar vir U genade wat my lewe steeds omspan. As die Here more weer die son vir my laat skyn, sal ek dankbaar wees, al kraak my lyf van pyn.

Groete. Leslie
